Represent the Needs of Homebuyers During the Real Estate Transaction

The Accredited Buyer’s Representative (ABR®) designation is the benchmark of excellence in buyer representation. The designation program establishes a foundation of training, skills, and resources to help real estate professionals succeed as a buyer’s representative.

The ABR® designation two-day core course is specifically designed to: help you conduct a buyer counseling session, sign buyer-clients to a written buyer representation agreement, negotiate buyer-clients’ offers, and bring the transaction to a successful close.

When you decide to earn your ABR® designation, you gain:

- Ongoing specialized information, programs, and updates that help you stay on top of the issues and trends associated with buyer representation.
- Access to members-only benefits such as marketing tools and resources, which provide an additional competitive edge for ABR® designees.
Member Benefits

The ABR® designation provides many membership benefits to help your business and network grow. Here are just a few:

- Homebuying.REALTOR - website that hosts a home buying tips blog and explains why it is important for consumers to work with an ABR® designee.
- Deductr - innovative app that assists you in tracking your income, expenses, time, and mileage throughout the year, making tax-time virtually effortless. Available at a special rate for REBAC members.
- Customizable Marketing Tools - professionally designed postcards, ads, and consumer handouts.
- The Home Buyer’s Toolkit - a handy 36-page booklet that walks consumers through the home buying process and encourages them to work with an ABR® designee.
- Consumer One-Sheets - printable handouts on home buying topics. Perfect for a home buyer counseling session.
- ABR® Print Shop - customize, order, and mail marketing materials conveniently online, for a great price.
- ABR® Referrals & Networking Community - a private Facebook group where ABR® designees can interact and share referrals across the U.S. and around the world.
- Online Referral Database - national directory of ABR® designees where both home buyers and REALTORS® search to find qualified REALTORS® in a desired location.
- A Home Buyer’s Seminar Guide - instructions on how to plan and present your own home buyer’s seminar.

Member Publications

- Today’s Buyer’s Rep - monthly print newsletter that keeps members informed about timely issues, events, and legislation.
- TBR Hotsheet - weekly e-newsletter with briefs and links to stories pertaining to buyer’s representatives.
- RISMedia’s Real Estate Magazine - available to members for free online.

Designation Requirements

These five (5) requirements must be met to attain and use the ABR® designation:

1. Successful completion of the two-day ABR® Designation Course.
2. Successful completion of one elective course.
3. Submitted documentation verifying five completed transactions in which the ABR® candidate acted as a buyer’s representative.
4. Membership in good standing in the Real Estate Buyer’s Agent Council (REBAC). (Course enrollment includes a free, one-year membership with REBAC. Annual dues are $110 each year thereafter.)
5. Maintain active membership status with the National Association of REALTORS® or an NAR cooperating association.

For more information, visit REBAC.net or email rebac@realtors.org.
